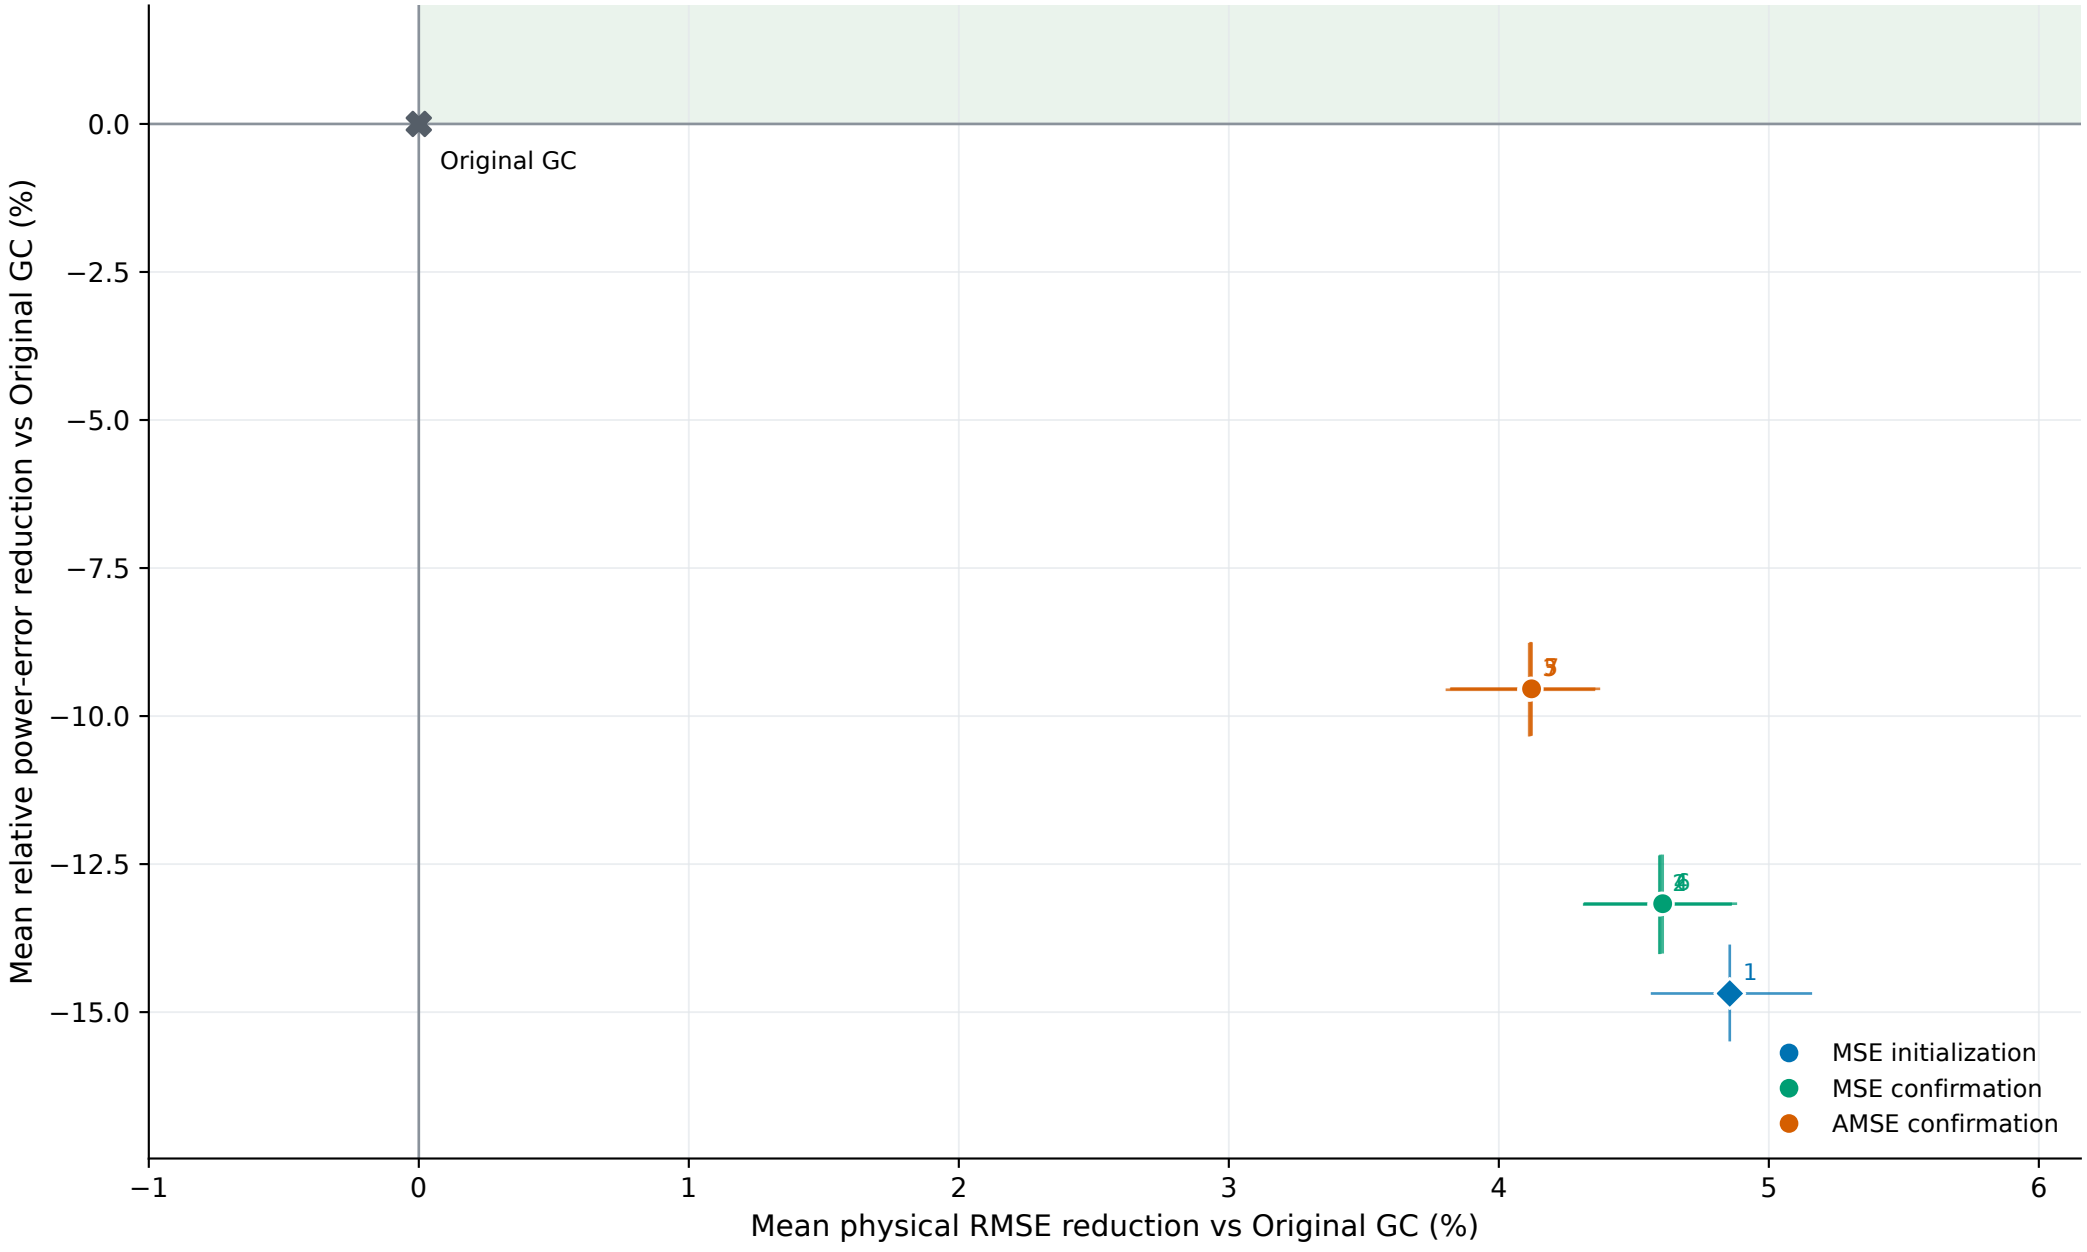
Joint forecast-error and spectral-power comparison

Confirmation · both axes use the same evaluation starts · upper right improves both diagnostics



RMSE averages physical-field ratios across the prespecified fields/leads; power error averages relative spectral errors.

Aggregate eligibility also requires lower exact GraphCast loss and the safety guard. Numbers map to candidate_metrics.csv.

Lines through confirmation points show available paired 95% intervals. Each point remains an independently evaluated model.